MONDAY MORNING, MAR. 25, 1863.

CLING TO THE CONSTITUTION, AS THE SHREKED MARINER CLINGS TO THE LAST PLANK WHEN NIGHT AND THE TEMPEST CLOSE ABOUT HIM.—Daniel Webster.

Never before did Statesmen utter a stronger injunction to his fellow countrymen, in such few and eloquent words. It is no irrelevance to say that, like the parales of the Great Teacher, this brief sentence furnishes a text on which volumes might be written.

We invite attention to the able letter from Senator Buckalew to the Democrats of Philadelphia, which we publish on the first page. In a calm, clear and logical manner he demonstrates how the administration has failed to appreciate the real necessities of the nation in its efforts to suppress rebellion, departed from its declared policy at the outset, and substituted the anarchy and extreme measures of Sumner, Greeley and Phillips, which are violative of the Constitution, and subversive of the fundamental principles upon which our Government rests.

Our neighbor of the Sentinel sets up a novel test of "loyalty"—the quester, decidedly, that has yet fallen under our notice. In alluding to our publication of election returns from New York and other points, (announcing, of course, what is now an almost universal result—the sweeping success of Democracy,) our neighbor remarks:

"It looks very suspicious, to say the least of it, to find men hunting up and encouraging rebellion to the powers that be, in this time of our country's peril."

Has it come to this, that Democratic editors are to be regarded as "suspicious" for publishing the expression of the people's will at the ballot box? If they are disloyal under the test thus invented, what is to be thought of the people themselves, who, by their votes, actually condemn "the powers that be"? Are they "suspicious," "disloyal," too? Let our neighbor follow up his "logic," and see where it will lead him to? There can be but one result—disgrace! The people, who under the Constitution are the source of all power, must be ignored, and the "powers that be" set up as dictators and tyrants. Does our neighbor desire such a change in our heretofore free and enlightened system of Government?

In the House at Harrisburg, on the 6th inst., Mr. Muselman, a Republican, made a "highfalutin" speech, in which he said that although he did not "value the black institution a farthing," he would yield his personal convictions on the question to a higher power—to Congress—and closed by quoting (in bad taste, the "power" now ruling considered,) the scriptural passage that "whoever resisteth the power resisteth the ordinance of God."

Mr. Myers, of Adams, thereupon proposed, as a sequel to the discussion, that the House now have sung the "grand national anthem, John Brown's soul is marching on."

This capital hit was received with shouts of laughter in all quarters of the House, and Mr. Myers was complimented for it.
The Sentinel indulges in a very small "ding" at Mr. Myers for this piece of pleasantry, by trying to convey the impression that he intended it for a "speechee." Nothing could be more far-fetched; and we can attribute this unauthorized attempt at ridicule on the part of our neighbor only to his utter inability to do justice to a political opponent.

In the State Senate, on Friday week, Mr. McSherry presented a bill to charter the "Inland Telegraph Company," which was referred to the proper committee, who have since made a favorable report. The line, we believe, is to extend from the Hanover Junction, through this place, to Pittsburg, on the Ohio river, with power to connect with other lines. It is hoped that the bill will meet with no obstacle in either house.

In the House, on Thursday, numerous petitions were presented, among which were the usual number having reference to the immigration of negroes, for compelling persons contemplating marriage to take out licenses, that the fines collected from non-residents be paid into the treasury of the county in which the same is collected, for calling a national convention, etc. Mr.
Myers presented one to allow the fine collected on account of conscientious scruples in Adams county to go into the county treasury.

Democratic principles are comprehensive enough to supply all that is needed in this dark hour. Those principles would have preserved the Union—and if anything in God's providence can restore it, the same old principles must be applied in the work.

Peace Propositions.—Hon. Fernando Wood, of New York, is out in a letter to the Evening Post, over his own signature, stating that, on the 12th of December last, propositions for an armistice were submitted to our Government, the circumstances attending which he says are not made public, only because "one of the principal officers of the Government" has made a request to that effect. Mr. Wood says he is confident that "had these propositions been accepted, the war would have been terminated on the 1st of April, on a basis satisfactory to the people, both North and South."

The appointment of so many outgoing Congressmen to fat offices created by them in the latter part of the late session of Congress, occasions much comment.

"The Age" is to appear to-morrow.

GEN. COOPER REBUKES THE MOB SPIRIT.

Gen. James Cooper, for a long time a citizen, and a prominent one, of this State, and a resident of this place, is now in command at Columbus, Ohio. He had occasion recently to issue the following sensible order, to which we invite public attention, and especially of those of his old political friends who are now so desperately given over to the "party spirit" of Abolitionism as to lead them to the counselling of mob violence upon such a man may differ from their wicked and ruinous views. Let them read and reflect!

HEADQUARTERS UNITED STATES FORCES, COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 8, 1863.
General Order No. 16.

Having been informed, and partly witnessed, that the mob spirit, which has been to the Ohio Statehouse, newspapers published in this city, were last night broken into by a mob of disorderly persons, composed partly of citizens and partly of soldiers, who unlawfully and wantonly destroyed furniture, papers, books and newspaper files of the former office, and were only prevented from the commission of similar outrages at the Statehouse office by the fear of being detected and arrested, I desire to offer a word of advice to the citizens, and to warn the soldiers of the penalties they incur by such outrageous violations of the law.

To such citizens as can so far forget their obligations to society and the respect due to the laws, which are as much the safeguard of their own property as of the persons and property of their neighbors, the just condemnation and disapproval of their conduct by the intelligent and law-respecting portion of community, of all parties, convey a wholesome admonition as well as a moral rebuke. The rules and orders of the army, which are as much the safeguard of the conduct of the nation, and of all parties,
of the conduct of the nation, and of all parties,
a moral rebuke.

To the soldiers who participated in last night's outrages and violence, I have to say, your conduct is strangely inconsistent with your duty, and the holy purpose for which your country puts arms in your hands.
Your mission is to uphold the laws, not to violate them. And it was proudly presumed that, however unreasoning the armies of despots, the American soldiers who rushed by hundreds of thousands to the field, to uphold the cause of popular government, and the integrity of the Union, implied by a foul and wicked rebellion, were intelligent enough to comprehend and appreciate the character of the issue—an issue involving the rights and security of individuals, as well as the integrity of the Republic. How little it seems to you with the character of the duties you have assumed, and the mission you have taken upon you to fulfill, was your conduct last night, in lending yourselves to the cowardly attack and felonious outrage committed upon the property of private individuals.

Forgetting that duties as soldiers, you have become rioters and burglars; and instead of being, as you ought to be, the protectors of the rights of the citizens, you have become their assailants.

But I desire you to reflect that it is not enough that the rules and orders of the service of the service deal with rioters and plunderers. It will be seen by paragraph 7 of the Regulations, that the offense of which you have been guilty is, in the language of the Regulations I have quoted, "of committing any act of violence, or of the removal of the lawful property of any person, lawfully awarded against the nature."

Against the perpetration of such offenses, in future, I now warn you. The persons and property of the citizens are sacred in the eyes of God and military law, and any outrage of this kind will be visited by inflicting upon the perpetrators, the moment they are detected, the extreme penalty authorized by law.

By command of Brig. Gen. Cooper.
Wm. Vox DODDS, A. G.

Outrages upon Newspapers.—Within a few weeks four or five newspaper offices in the Western States have been destroyed by Republican mobs. The Republican papers represent these outrages to have been committed by soldiers; but if that is true, they were instigated and led on by Republican demagogues. These outrages are justified and gloried in by the Republican papers, just as they justify and glory in every act of mob violence and violation of personal rights in other cases where their party interests are to be promoted and personal malice to be gratified. Fortunately will it be for them if a day of retribution in kind does not come. But if it does, let them remember that they have deliberately inaugurated a reign of terror, a disregard of law and personal rights.—Lane, Intel.

Frauds.—Never, in the history of our own or any other nation, has there been developed such a systematic series of stupendous peculations, as we have seen under the present Administration. And yet with all the startling and undeniable proof of public robbery, what single step has been taken by Congress to arrest the evil.
Where is the evidence of the trial, much less of the conviction of one of these thieves? Congress has been so deeply interested in legislating for the negro, that its members have failed to find time to look after the pecuniary interests of the nation.
How long shall these things be permitted?

The Haytian Minister.—The new Haytian Minister has arrived at Washington, and is very much harassed by the administration and leading Abolition-Republicans generally.
The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer says as follows:
"At Secretary Seward's dinner party, to be given on next Thursday, the Haytian Minister will be invited the same as other guests."
The Haytian Minister, be it remembered, is a negro, but notwithstanding this he is to be seated at Seward's table with the white guests. Equality of races is now the chief object of Republican negro worship.

Gen. McClellan pays particular attention to the soldiers of the Army of the Potomac whenever he meets them. When he passed through Springfield, Mass., recently, he was invited to dinner at the Massachusetts House, and it was arranged that he should sit beside the mayor of the city; but as he entered the dining room he espied one of his old soldiers and sat beside him during the meal, regardless of the disappointment of Mayor Alexander.

Colonel James B. Fry, Assistant Adjutant General U. S. A., has been detailed as provost marshal general under the act for enrolling and calling out the national forces. All appointments heretofore made of provost marshals are revoked.

The chartering of transports for the war is better than the gold speculation. One speculator, but the other, according to Mr.
Grimes' report, yields about 520 per cent. when practiced in Baltimore.

MILITARY PLUNDERERS.

Mr. Chandler, of Michigan, (Republican) said in the Senate recently that "military officers have been guilty of pillaging from the rebels, and dividing the spoils among themselves. Large sums have thus been seized, held and divided by certain Generals."

Mr. Lane, of Kansas, (Republican) said he knew of a Brigadier General who, having received a number of slaves (18 I believe) within his camp, gave them up to the owner in consideration of receiving forty-eight bales of cotton! Mr. Lane also said that the custom was for commanders to give permits to bring cotton and for military commanders to receive a percentage for the permits and protection thus afforded.

These transactions had greatly demoralized the army.

Mr. Chandler, on the same occasion, said the Senate had deliberately voted to continue the present demoralization in the army, and to uphold the thieves, plunderers and robbers in the service.

"HAVE YOU HEARD FROM MAINE?"

The town elections in Maine took place several weeks ago, in many towns, and resulted most gloriously for the Democracy.
As specimens we note the following: (In Standish), which was an abolition last year, the whole Democratic ticket is now elected by 49 majority. In Harwell, Abolition last year, the Democratic ticket prevails by about 60 majority. Westbrook, Abolition last year, now gives 140 Democratic majority.
Windham, which usually gives 200 majority, was now carried by only one or two majority. In Gorham the Democrats gain over 25 from the vote of last fall, and over 100 from last spring. Limington gives Democracy from 100 to 200. In Baldwin the Democrats sweep the board, where all was Abolition last year; and in other towns like results appear. In these elections a very full vote was thrown.

REJOICING OVER OUR TROUBLES.

The N. Y. Tribune, commenting on the communication in reference to the proposed compromise measures of 1860, says: "We cannot print the above without adding an expression of our fervent gratitude to God, for the defeat of that Criswell proposition."
This is of a character with Senator Wade's remark, that he was glad we had lost the last battle of Bull Run, because it brought us finally to the Emancipation Proclamation, and Beecher's "thanks to Heaven that we had so many brave men to offer up their lives" at Fredericksburg. No doubt the radical leaders are all rejoiced at the condition they and their allies, the rebels, have brought the country to, for they have lined their pockets well by the war, but the poor people—the farmers, merchants, sisters and wives, who have lost their dear ones and the soldiers, who have to suffer while these scoundrels are making fortunes, think otherwise.—Erie Observer.

WHAT GEN. HARRISON THOUGHT

It appears from a letter written by Gen.
HARRISON to Mr. MONROE in 1820, that he did not believe slavery would, if left alone, destroy the Union, but did believe that Abolition interference would. So thought and so said Webster and Clay and all the great statesmen of America. In his letter to Mr. Monroe, Gen. H. says:
"I am and have been for many years so much opposed to slavery that I will never live in a slave State. But I believe that the Constitution has given no power to the General Government to interfere in this matter, and that to take slaves or to slaves depends upon the people in each State alone. But besides the constitutional objection, I am persuaded that the obvious tendency of such interference on the part of the States which have no slaves, with the property of their fellow citizens of the other, is to produce a state of discord and jealousy that will, in the end, prove fatal to the Union."

A DESPOTISM TO BE ESTABLISHED.

"Another principle must certainly be embodied in our reorganized form of government. The men who shape the legislation of this country, when the war is just must remember that we want a strong power and strength. The problem will be to combine the form of a Republican Government with the power of a Monarchical Government." Philadelphia Press.

This war has already shown the absurdity of a government with limited powers. It shows that the power of every government must be unlimited.—Phila. North American.

Who would have supposed, remarks an exchange, two years ago, that sentiments such as are contained in the above extracts would have become the fundamental doctrines of any portion of the American people, and be echoed and re-echoed by the press of the party in power. Yet such is the fact, and the drift of current events is tending toward the accomplishment of the object here foreshadowed.

"COPPERHEADS" VS. NIGGERHEADS.

THE DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE.
I am for getting back the Southern States by fair and honorable means, if such a thing be possible; and I will hope for the best.

The Union I desire is a union of hearts and hands, such as our fathers gave us.
Nothing less will satisfy me than the whole Southern States.

THOMAS H. SEYMOUR,
Connecticut.

THE ABOLITION DOCTRINE.
I will not satisfy myself by supposing that we have any warrant in the Constitution for this proceeding.

This talk of restoring the Union as it is, is one of the absurdities which I have heard repeated until I have become about sick of it.
The Union can never be restored as it was.
There are many things which render such an event impossible. This Union never shall, with my consent, be restored, under the Constitution as it is, with slavery to be protected by it.

THOMAS STEVENS,
the Administration leader in Congress.

The London News of a late date contained the startling announcement that five new war steamers are being built in England, for the rebel Government. The shipbuilders claim that they are "for the Empire of China!"

Do you know that a cold is a dangerous thing? If you do, get a box of Bryan's Pulmonic Water, put a few drops in your mouth, and cure your sore throat, cough, hoarseness, &c., in a few hours. Sold for 25 cents a box.

The Battle-field of Antietam.—It is said that a revolting spectacle is now presented on the battle-field of Antietam. The earth is being dug up from the shallow trenches used for graves, and bodies of the buried soldiers are appearing on the surface in various parts of that vast graveyard.

THEY NEVER LEARN AND NEVER FORGET.

What the opposition party was born that will die. It came into the world a fool, and it will go out of it a fool. Under whatever name it appears—and they are legion—it is always the same. It never learns, it never forgets. Having no permanent name, no principles, no prestige, it relies upon great names, upon deceit, upon trickery. It believes in bluster and brag, in noise and confusion. It looks upon the people as simpletons, it treats them as such, and never discovers its mistake until they turn upon it and crush it. Not knowing how to use them wisely, with its victory is defeat and success destruction. What they gain by hypocrisy and stratagem, they lose by ignorance and arrogance. They count the people when out of power, and oppress them when in power. They never get rid of enough that they did not hang themselves. As heretofore, so now, they have entrapped, or bought, a few apostates from Democracy into their ranks, and foolishly imagine that, under their instruction and leadership, they can piece the Democratic phalanx, rout the hosts of freedom who have rallied under the banner of the Constitution and Union, and retain power long enough to break both down and establish their favorite form of government—a Central Despotism, surrounded and supported by an Abolition aristocracy. The very rant of Heaven resounds with their shouts of welcome to Andy Johnson, the two Wrights, Van Buren, Brady, Brewster and the few other renegades who have recently gone over to the other—forgetful of the fact that they have tried the same game time and again without success, and that the acquisition to their ranks of such disorganizers as the Democracy is willing to spare them is a source of weakness rather than strength. Democracy, depending for success upon principles alone, never loses by the defection of men. The places of those who leave are more than supplied by those who come, and, as long as the principles of the party are strictly adhered to and honestly enforced in the administration of government, so long will our strength increase. It is only when the party betrays its principles, or fails to follow its professions, that the people leave it and the opposition succeeds. It is not now that we are in danger—not now, when we have grappled to our principles and fastened to the Constitution with a vice like grip, that we need apprehend defeat. Our mission is to save the country from the grasp of Despotism on the one hand, and the reign of anarchy on the other—and we will do it. It is a holy mission, in which the people are with us—and neither the "raids of Hell," nor the power of the Abolition administration, aided by apostates and plunderers and traitors, can prevail against us. We are the stars of victory shining in the political sky as plainly as the shepherds saw the star of Bethlehem; and, while we follow its radiant light, our hearts swelling with the certainty of triumph, we admonish the Abolitionists and their fellow conspirators, the renegades, that their hour draweth nigh, and solemnly warn them to "leave the wrath to come" while yet they may—for those who withstand the approaching wind of popular indignation, who resist the massed and mighty power of the people will be crushed and ground as between the upper and under millstone.—Louis & Linn.

TOO TRUE.

The "Farmer," at Millerburg, Ohio, says:
"All army contractors, all gambling privates, all thieving commissaries, all cotton speculating generals, colonels, and staff officers, all heavily paid tax appraisers and thousands of plundering deputies, all collectors of taxes receiving heavy fees and having fat perquisites, all their retainers and operatives, are opposed to peace on any terms! It is for their advantage that the war should be prolonged as long as possible! They it is who, while they are denouncing Democrats as traitors, are plotting their ways into the Treasury and robbing it, while the people are reeling under the accumulating burden of taxation!"

The Old Trick.—Our Abolition negro loving citizens are returning to an old chapter to stop, if possible, their rapid political discussion. They are attempting to get the people in support of this Administration, and now to be made under the name of a "Union League!" We observed a few days ago posted about town, flaming handbills announcing that steps had been taken to organize a "League" in our midst. We presume at this late date, such a weak "cob-web" will catch no flies! We will not insult our readers, who have the memory of John Nottingham fresh in their minds, by exposing such a traitor parent trick. Those who are moving in this patriotic organization are generally those who hold fat offices, and wish to be re-elected next fall. A word to the wise is sufficient.—Washington (Pa.) Times.

Twenty years ago Wm. Lloyd Garrison, the editor of the Boston Liberator, submitted the following resolution to an Abolition meeting in Faneuil Hall, Boston:

Resolved, That the Constitution of the United States is a covenant with death, and an implicit agreement with hell, which ought to be immediately annulled.

HARRISBURG ELECTION.

The "Copperheads" Victorious.—Mass Meeting of the Jubilant Democracy.—The municipal election yesterday was one of the most fiercely contested, on the part of the Abolitionists, that has ever taken place in this city, and notwithstanding the strenuous efforts and corrupt means resorted to, the indomitable Democracy came out of the contest victorious, electing their candidates for Mayor, City Auditor, Common Council, and the whole ticket, except in the Fifth ward, by handsome majorities. When the result was announced the jubilant Democracy assembled in front of the Patriot & Union office and gave vent to their enthusiasm in repeated cheers for Rounholt and the Constitution.

Hundreds of the Democracy subsequently repaired to the Buehler House, where calls were made for the Democratic Mayor elect, who appeared upon the balcony in response to the call and delivered a brief and stirring address, congratulating his friends upon the victory they had achieved, which elicited frequent and enthusiastic applause. Able and eloquent speeches were also made by Hon. William H. Miller, Mr.
Ward, of Bradford, a gentleman from Luzerne county, whose name would not learn, and others. The meeting was kept up for nearly two hours, when the triumphant Democracy adjourned with three times three cheers for Rounholt, "the Constitution and the Union."—Harrisburg Patriot & Union Saturday.

York Borough O. K.—The Democrats of York, on Friday, elected David Small, Esq., Chief Burgess, by about 100 majority, three of the five Councilmen, and the high Constable. The Democrats now have control of the city, and are determined to carry out the policy of the town. The struggle was the most animated ever had there, and the victory one of the most brilliant.

THE BATTLE-FIELD OF ANTETAM.—It is said that a revolting spectacle is now presented on
various parts of that vast graveyard.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FIRST OF APRIL CHANGES.—Those of our subscribers who intend to change their places of residence or about the first of April, are requested to give us timely notice of the change, in order that their papers may be forwarded or delivered to them at their new residences. They should always be careful to state the place from, as well as the place to which they remove. Early attention to this matter will save trouble, and insure the prompt receipt of the paper by subscribers, in town or country.

BOROUGH ELECTION.—The election in this borough, on Friday last resulted as follows:

Democrats.	Burgess.	Republicans.
Jeremiah Diehl,	113	Robert Martin,	181
Philip Dunsom,	115	A. B. Buehler,	176
Jacob Benner,	116	Henry Rapp,	180
Henry Culp, of P.	123	Jeremiah Culp,	182
Harvey D. Wattle,	124	C. M. Geiselman,	179
G. F. Eckenrode,	120	Hiram Warren,	180
School Directors,
Solomon Powers,	125	D. A. Buehler,	179
Robert McCurdy,	121	W. E. Meals,	172
Jacob Reimel,	120	John Barrett,	187

These majorities for the Republican (or Abolition) candidates are about the same as those received by the candidates of that party last fall. (Cochran, for Auditor General, a fair party test at that time,) had 60 majority; whilst the Republican Inspector (the Inspector is the usual test at a spring election,) on Friday, received 55 majority. Majorities ranged a trifle above and below these figures in October, as was the case on Friday. But under ordinary circumstances, the result would have been far more favorable to the Democrats, as fair-minded Republicans readily see. About 25 substitutes from the borough are now at Suffolk.
In the 165th Regiment; of these are told that upwards of 20 are Democrats. Further—whilst a considerable number of citizens did not come near the polls because they did not happen to have the wherewithal to pay their borough tax—three-fourths of them Democrats,—quite a number of students at the college and seminary voted—probably all the Republican ticket —without having paid a cent of such tax. When the proper officers were interrogated in regard to this manifest injustice to regular residents, the reply was made that no borough tax had been assessed against these students! Now this systematic "omission," or "commission," on the part of our authorities, is all wrong; and in the name of the regular residents of the borough, especially the poor men, we protest against it. In our own citizens are not permitted to have a voice in the selection of their own officers, because their borough tax may not have been paid, there is no justice in permitting those who are only temporarily here, and do not pay such tax, to do it for them.

All these circumstances considered, together with the extraordinary efforts made by several of the Republican leaders, whose whole souls are always engrossed with the slightest of "spots," the Democrats may congratulate themselves that they were not beaten worse.
The full election will show a reduced Republican majority, we feel certain.

The drawbacks we have alluded to as operating in the borough, did not operate in the townships, and from them we have results unusually gratifying. Those hands from are triumphantly glorious.

The heretofore stubborn Republican district of Cumberland elected more than half Democrats! Considering the hard work done to keep this township in the Abolition tracks, this result is truly astonishing. David Schriver, the "belt-riever," is elected judge by but one majority.

Unter, heretofore Republican, "does better" and elects all Democrats!
Old Strawn still maintains his ancient title.
Although out of 37 men drafted last fall 46 are Democrats, the whole Democratic ticket was elected on Friday by the handsome majority of about 60!

Germany township also did her work well, electing the whole Democratic ticket by unusually large majorities—some 40 to 50, we are told.

Franklin stands proudly erect. The whole Democratic ticket is elected by big figures, some of the majorities running above 80.
Freedom township (Republican last fall by 25) elects half the Democratic ticket. This good news.

Mountain elects the whole Democratic ticket.
We have not learned the majorities.
The Democrats make a clean sweep in both Hamilton and Liberty. "Bully for that!"
Isaac Robinson, Esq., Dem., for Justice, has 50

GRAND CONCERT.—See the announcement, in another column, of a grand vocal and instrumental concert, to come off in Christ's Church, on Thursday evening next. The best talented of this place, assisted from abroad, will be engaged on the occasion. The high reputation of the performers, and the guarantee that it will be a grand affair.
The programme is a most attractive one, showing that a rare musical treat may be expected.
The concert will be similar to the one given by Madame Mozart, in the same place, a few years ago, and which is yet fresh in the memories of all who were present. By aside from this the object is a most commendable one and will meet with the approbation of all who wish to do something for our sick and wounded soldiers, for whose benefit the concert is to be given.
